MICHAEL HUNN

Advisor

Michael Hunn has been an advisor to Emergent Success since 2014, providing organizational, operational and leadership development advisory services, helping complex organizations create effective, mission driven, systems and structures designed, in collaboration with leadership and staff, for success.

Most recently, Michael was the SVP/Chief Executive for Providence Health & Services Southern California Region; the second largest health system and seventh largest private employer in Los Angeles County. With more than 20 years of experience as a Hospital President and Chief Executive, Michael has served at various Hospitals and Health Systems in Southern California since 1991.

Michael holds an undergraduate BA degree in Liberal Arts and Philosophy from Cardinal Glennon College in Saint Louis, MO and a MA degree in Systematic Theology with a concentration in Morals (with a focus on bio-medical ethics) from Kenrick Theological Seminary also in Saint Louis, MO.

Additionally, Michael has served as a Governing Board Member of the Southern California Hospital Association and was its Past Chairman of the Board in 2012. He also served on the Board of the California Hospital Association and was the Secretary of the CHA Board in 2014 and was a Board Member of the Integrated Health Association. In addition, he is Past Chairman of the Board of the Alliance of California Catholic Health Systems in 2014 and currently serves in 2016 as the Board Chair of the National Health Foundation.
